The Silverline Biography

THE SILVERLINE are the formidable talents of husband /wife duo Michael & Catherine Lehen.

MICHAEL LEHLEN: Hailing from Nashville TN, Singer/songwriter/lead guitarist Michael was a session player and well-known radio personality in Muscle Shoals AL. Michael has rubbed shoulders with Country Royalty including Shania Twain, Garth Brooks, Randy Travis and Hank Williams Jnr. As a session player, his performance credits in the "Duets" movie soundtrack and other contributions.

CATHERINE LEHNEN: Singer/songwriter Catherine's rockier vocal edge crosses 'blues and country' borders with finesse and tenderness. She has performed extensively Australia wide in vocal groups, toured with the Australian Army band, performed live on TV, Radio and as a session vocalist. Catherine was also an elite finalist on Season 7 of the Voice Australia.

The Silverline are "country music with a cause" delivering beautifully written original catchy songs with relevance and authenticity. They are seasoned live performers who together deliver exceptional exciting dynamic live performances that are powerful and interactive. They know how to work a crowd and deliver the goods!

Their new single Let the Rain Fall is receiving amazing feedback and widespread airplay across Australia while rocketing up the country charts!

LET THE RAIN FALL is a powerfully crafted & evocative song that delves into the real-life heartache facing Australia's rural community. Produced at Hillbilly Hut and mastered at Sterling Studios NJ by renowned engineer Randy Merrill (who mastered "A Star is Born" soundtrack), this song will strike a chord with anyone who has walked a hard country mile, facing the enormity of the drought.

LET THE RAIN FALL is pure "country with a cause" - dedicated to Australia's farming communities who are our real-life heroes. Proceeds from the song are being donated to Rural Aid.

With their Hometown Rodeo LP due for release in December 2019,
The Silverline are a duo to watch!

With lush harmonies and powerful lyrics, they write and sing the songs that emanate from life's journey where we face the hardest trials to receive the sweetest triumphs.
